We invite you to join the growing Misquamicut Business Association. We are committed to revitalizing our beach area and promoting business and commerce. We need your participation. The MBA, since May of 2000 has grown to over 180 members. 95% of Misquamicut Businesses are members of the MBA.

There are many reasons to join the MBA, but the first and foremost is to promote your business through various MBA programs. As a member, you are listed in over 90,000 copies of our Misquamicut paper, published three times a year. You are listed on our website, which receives 1.5 million hits per year, with a free link to your site. We encourage our members to support MBA members first. You can participate in any number of our family activities to promote your business, from fireworks displays to Classic Car Cruises to Magic shows, and you can attend all of our monthly meetings where other beach business and suppliers to those businesses can network. You can access our email and mailing lists to select customers.

There are three levels of membership.

Full: $375: if your business is located in the Misquamicut Fire District

Allied $350: Business or Company who supplies or solicits the beach area. Multiple employees, national companies, etc.

Associate $100: For small business owners with one or two employees, a business that solicits or services the beach area or would like to receive referrals from the beach area.

Please take a minute to fill out the form and send it back with your check. Keep the invoice for you tax records, as the MBA is a Non-Profit corporation and your dues are tax deductible.

Thank you for your support. For questions on membership, call our office: 401-322-1026.
